A three (3) phase outreach strategy was proposed for Planning & Development to gauge community opinions on housing. Part of the first phase involved a questionnaire and survey completed with 140 responses with the results below.

Local plans and regulations were studied, recommendations for amendments to the City's Unified Development Code (UDC) were proposed.

Based on analyses completed for PlanCheyenne, infill development was found to be a great strategy to meet plan goals. The Urban Renewal Authority, implemented in 2021, can be a suitable conduit for targeting urban infill housing development. Maps below are a product of the PlanCheyenne Comprehensive Plan.

Residents are in favor of strategically planning for housing in their community.

Cheyenne sees a wide variety of housing development and developers support density and infill. Cheyenne has a strong downtown core suitable for infill development. Complete all three phases of the Community Outreach Strategy.

Cheyenne should look to complete and implement a housing plan or strategy to guide its housing development in light of future growth and cost factors.